Thanks Ian.

ORMAN went to High Court and lost.

She has mentioned this notion of 'tainted' evidence before.

Orman was convicted almost entirely on [REDACTED] TI (of he and VENIAMIN) arranging the murder of Peirce, together with the evidence of [REDACTED] who provided some context and interpretation to the TI calls. [REDACTED] was a party to a number of the calls.

When [REDACTED] rolled and provided [REDACTED] or so statements about a number of [REDACTED] he was being 'advised' by Gobbo.

She reviewed and ticked off all the statements he made.

[REDACTED] was vigorously cross examined by Richter as trial, as was I.

The appeal to the Court and then to the High Court was based in large part on the unreliability of [REDACTED]

Unless she is now saying that she knew at the time or was implicit in [REDACTED] making false statements, I'm not sure what she means.

I think that is the nub of it.

No probs. I delivered a letter to F and she stated that Gatto had approached her parter with an offer of $500,000 for her to supply a statement that the evidence against Faruk Orman was tainted by her. Apparently it has something to do with his High Court appeal that he abandoned. She has also had a similar approach by Orman's solicitor. Was just going to get your thoughts. It can wait until tomorrow,

Have a good night
