This document has been redacted for Public Interest Immunity claims made by Victoria Police. These claims are not yet resolved.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE AND INSPECTION

Purpose of an Official Diary

A PB 13 is kept as a record of daily duties performed including rest days, leave, etc. Its object is to:-

- afford accurate information to supervisors as to the manner in which duties are carried out.
- protect and assist employees on all occasions of future reference to their conduct.

Use of a Day-Book

Employees may record details of their duties performed and contemporaneous notes in a day-book. This is not a corporate document and does not replace the need to complete other records as required by the policy.

A PB 13 may be used as a day-book however a day-book does not replace a PB 13. PB 13 and patrol duty return entries can not include a cross-reference to a day-book entry.

Security of an Official Diary

Employees are responsible for the security of the PB 13 issued to them:

- only take away from the work location when necessary.
- give to the OIC for security and reference if going to be absent for a length of time, e.g. on leave.

Inspection of an Official Diary

Responsibility for Inspection

Supervisors must inspect PB 13s on a regular basis to ensure proper completion of entries. District Inspectors, Station Managers and Divisional Managers have the overall responsibility.

When to Inspect

- Station Managers – at least fortnightly where possible
- Inspecting Officers – random checks during inspections

Arrangements for Inspection

Must be made to avoid the excuse of the PB 13 not being available. If necessary, arrange for inspection while the employee is absent from work to avoid them needing it on the day of inspection.

VICTORIA POLICE

OFFICIAL DIARY
PB13

A 015671

Issued to _____

Rank & No. _____

Date _____/_____/_____

Completed and returned to:- _____

Date _____/_____/_____

*Note: For notifying movements and transfers refer to instructions at the rear of the Official DiaryINSTRUCTIONS FOR USE AND INSPECTION*Purpose of an Official Diary

A PB 13 is kept as a record of daily duties performed including rest days, leave, etc. Its object is to:-

- afford accurate information to supervisors as to the manner in which duties are carried out.
- protect and assist employees on all occasions of future reference to their conduct.

Use of a Day-Book

Employees may record details of their duties performed and contemporaneous notes in a day-book. This is not a corporate document and does not replace the need to complete other records as required by the policy.

A PB 13 may be used as a day-book however a day-book does not replace a PB 13. PB 13 and patrol duty return entries can not include a cross-reference to a day-book entry.

Security of an Official Diary

Employees are responsible for the security of the PB 13 issued to them:

- only take away from the work location when necessary.
- give to the OIC for security and reference if going to be absent for a length of time, e.g. on leave.

Inspection of an Official DiaryResponsibility for Inspection

Supervisors must inspect PB 13s on a regular basis to ensure proper completion of entries. District Inspectors, Station Managers and Divisional Managers have the overall responsibility.

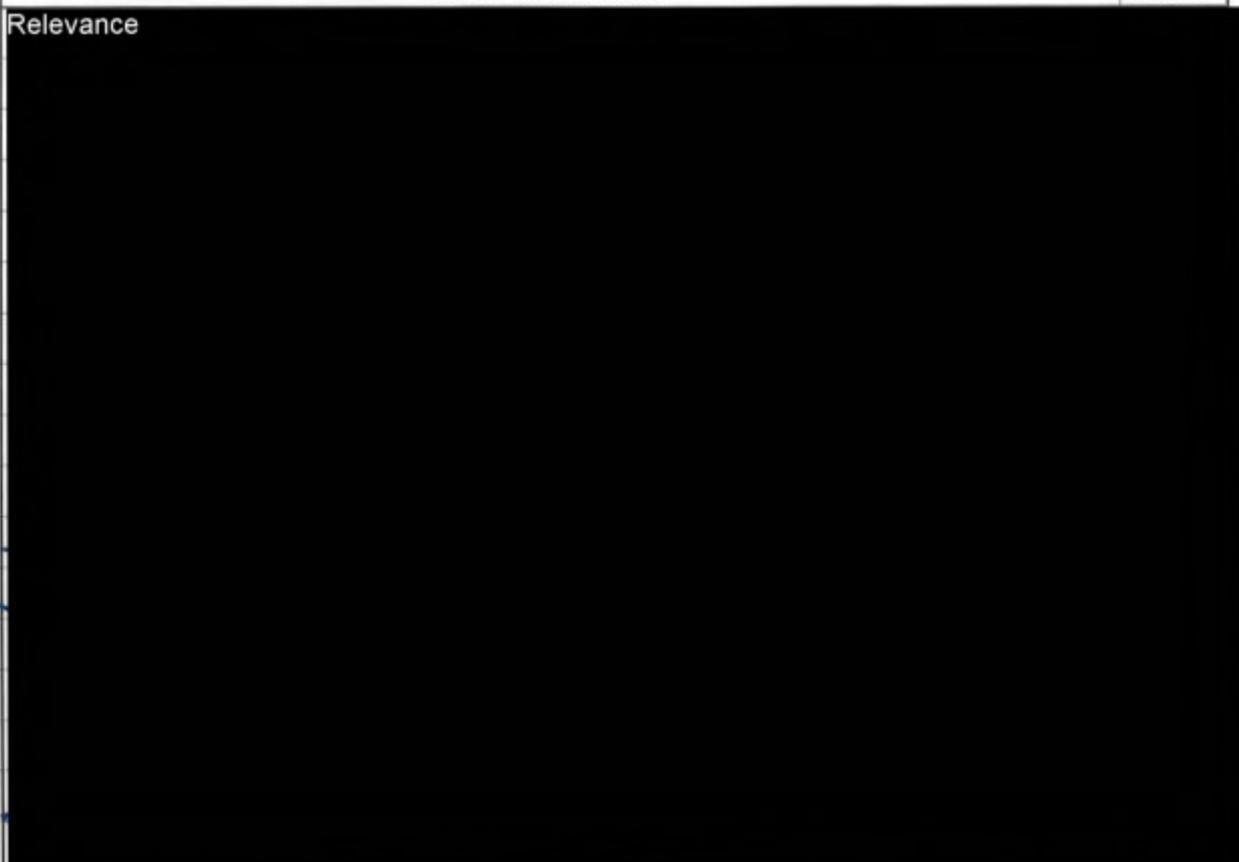

When to Inspect

- Station Managers – at least fortnightly where possible
- Inspecting Officers – random checks during inspections

Arrangements for Inspection

Must be made to avoid the excuse of the PB 13 not being available. If necessary, arrange for inspection while the employee is absent from work to avoid them needing it on the day of inspection.
