- Just about the rfa being not done. You know that he will just defer it back to [redacted] as it is his crews issue and lack of communication on his behalf. This weird split chain of command just seems to divide the east and west further.
- I am going to bring up obvious imbalance of workload in the office at this meeting and this would be the opportune time.
- Any revelation prior to the meeting will result in others being consulted to counteract the issues raised.
- The only issue I have with this is the presence of GLOW.
- The OIU overexposure of [redacted] methodologies and failed pitching will result in us being obsolete and in my opinion will expose us to additional risks with apparent high level targets when the word gets around. Fhuck the bizarre in fighting, we should be working together clearly we would do a better job and be able to do more of the bloody rfa's that are sittin there.
- I am going to call for a sub officers meeting tomorrow via email which will be arranged at a suitable venue (whole day event like what they do in the ops gen dut) I want funding.
- This will be a bandaid measure and worthless but an opportunity for some of us to observe the opinions of others and see if the agendas are similar.
- We will put our heads together about this and our justifiable agendas (over worked) that we need to get back prior to actual attendance.
- How were the waves buddie anyhow, how did the bean stork perform. I am sure these issues were discussed.
- Another heavy day on the phone
- Hows the way PII [redacted] spoke to Fox about taking back 2958 prior to his agreed date of 23rd (coinciding with CHIS O/S 10 day trip) in order to give me a T Week and it was strongly resisted.....perhaps I should do temps at OIU for a break.
- Lets go to QLD to develop some lines do CPP and Arabic. Lets go to the Belgiatic 2morrow its pay day.

You asked for meeting topics in a past email! I have a topic - assistance to squads and other members is an issue. I had an RFA for sex crimes before I went on leave and Ms Boulevard was close to identifying a potential in the prison - I am sure you are aware of this. I had ~~concurrently~~ liaised with Sex Crimes about the progress, because as we all know the bosses require a constant update. I went on leave with the expectation that the RFA would be followed through - I find now that it hasn't and have to front at Sex Crimes to tell them that nothing further has been done. I think that this is an embarrassing situation for me personally and the office as a whole. This is not the first time an RFA has not been given the adequate resources or efforts. Our name within the Crime department is slowly flushing down the toilet and it is a crying shame and no wonder that people are turning to the idiots on the 18th floor to do their pitches/recruitments. If we are that busy as a unit we should not be touting for business or offering our services or doing presentations claiming to be able to assist in being a valuable asset in recruiting sources for squads and divisions. To this end I am finally taking note that being up to date with ICRS is far more important than providing advice, support and resources to our fellow members, and therefore will be offline completing ICRS and I/Rs - unfortunately I will still have the RFA, [REDACTED] and to assist the two secondees at the office who are seeing this side of the ledger. This being the case I would think that no further members should do temps because they will go back to their respective work places with maybe the wrong idea of what we should be doing.,
