Corrections Victoria does not give Victoria Police approval for the release of the information for the Royal Commission or for the Court Of Appeal for civil disclosure

Any request for documents for the Royal Commission should be addressed to Corrections Victoria.

The documents should not be part of Court Of Appeal for civil disclosure for Victoria Police as they did not have the document prior to the request.

Should you require further clarification please contact me

Afternoon,

I apologise, I have just clarified with my supervisor, the documents are required to for the Court Of Appeal for civil disclosure – following on from the Royal Commission.

I understand there is a current MOU in place for provision of documents for the Royal Commission, however this is required for the appeals resulting from the Royal Commission.

Just to clarify the exact reason this document is required to be produced.

Regards,

Good Afternoon [REDACTED]

Would you mind confirming if this information can be utilised as evidence in the Royal Commission,

Is it possible to get permission from Corrections to use this information or is a warrant required?

Hi Brittany,

No updates yet, sorry but with a similar request it will take time to obtain a response. Andrew has emailed one of his contacts within PIMS to see if possible to obtain that report.

I will keep you updated.
